2	This course was perfect. No changes needed.
3	N/A
4	I would switch the due dates for some of the larger projects. For example, some of the assignments in this course that we had to build a website or do some time extensive work. We had three days to do the assignment but had seven to make a simple response. I understand having to do a main post first but those quick due dates on those big assignments were hard to keep up with because there were so many. I don't the best way to solve this issue but I still believe it needs to be addressed in some way.
5	I would like to see more detail for the assignments. Some had very vague instructions and caused a lot of confusion and misunderstanding.
6	I would allow future students to make a correction to one assignment. Some students go through things and aren't able to get an assignment done on time.
